

Literacy Council of South Temiskaming Newsletter

November/December 2011

The Literacy Council of South Temiskaming

exists to provide Literacy and Basic Skills programs and training to area residents. This service is free, confidential, and centered on the individual's needs. Learners receive one-on-one coaching from staff, instructors and/or volunteers from the community. Intake is continuous so clients may access our services at any time.

Part of what we offer is:

- Basic computer and internet
- Basic Word 2007
- Workplace preparation
- Online study

If you want to learn, or know someone that wants to learn, please contact our office at (705) 672-4232.

Computer Class

Beginning in January, we will be offering a free drop-in computer lab for basic internet learning. Space is limited, so please register early. The classes will be offered every Monday and Wednesday mornings from 10:00 - 12:00.

Call 705-672-4232 for more information.

Open House

Please drop in and join us for coffee and donuts. Check out our computer lab, try some of our computer programs or just come and see what we have to offer.
