

THE PARENT-CHILD MOTHER GOOSE PROGRAM®

STORYTELLING WORKSHOP MARCH 2, 2012

In a 2006 national survey the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program® received more 5-star ratings from service agencies than any other parent-child program in the country.

The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program is a group experience for parents and their babies and young children focusing on the pleasure and power of using oral and through the air rhymes, songs, and stories together.

This workshop will:

- Nurture a deeper understanding of storytelling as an essential element in the P-CMGP
- Inspire you to learn and tell stories
- Allow sharing of experiences and strategies for telling stories in a P-CMGP program
- Give you a personal appreciation of the power of told stories
- Build skills for learning and telling stories
- Build confidence in telling stories
- Direct you to a wealth of storytelling resources
- Focus on storytelling in the infant program

Cost includes a copy of You Can Tell a Story, A Handbook for New Storytellers, by Celia Barker Lottridge. A practical guide to finding, learning and telling stories in the community, with your family, and in a Parent-Child Mother Goose Program®. With seven lively traditional stories to get you started. ($20 value.)

A variety of additional resources will be available for sale at the workshop.

When: Friday, March 2nd, 2012 (9:30 – 4:30)

Where: Centre for Social Innovation, 720 Bathurst St (South of Bloor St.)

Cost: $160 (Early bird rate is $145 for those who register by February 1st, 2012)

Facilitator: Lynda Howes

Lynda Howes has been involved with the Toronto Storytelling community for 30 years, and is currently the Co-teacher in Residence for Storytelling Toronto. She has co-taught both the Infant and the 2 - 4 Programs in Toronto and currently serves as Lead Teacher for these programs. She was instrumental in helping to design the Storytelling Workshop, and has trained other Mother-Goose teachers to facilitate Storytelling Workshops in B.C. Besides telling nursery tales, Lynda tells epic stories, myth and wonder tales, and sings with the Toronto-based group, The Ballad Project.

Light snacks, tea and juice will be provided. There will be a break for lunch. Bloor St. west of Bathurst St. offers a great number of affordable restaurants.
